

CROOKS ORDERED TO LEAVE TOWN

One Had Criminal Record and Had Served Term for Grand Larceny.

Upon the condition that they would immediately leave the city, F. K. Baker, alias Frank Kelley, and Frank Lester, who were arrested several days ago by Captains of Detectives McMahon and his assistants, were given their liberty yesterday. They at once quit Richmond.

There was no case here against them, but Captain McMahon's suspicion against them was confirmed yesterday afternoon when he secured Baker's record from the Buffalo, N. Y., police. The latter has been arrested several times in Buffalo, Syracuse, Cleveland, O., and Birmingham. In the latter city he was convicted of a charge of grand larceny and served three and a half years in Auburn prison. The local police expect to get Lester's record in a few days.

Captain McMahon is satisfied that by the arrest of Baker and Lester he broke up a crowd of smooth crooks which was preparing to fleece passengers on street cars. Two of the gang escaped and are said to have left town.

Captain McMahon yesterday congratulated the men of his bureau for their efficient work during fair week. There were fewer complaints of the operations of pickpockets than ever before. The police this week have given the public splendid protection," Captain McMahon said. "We have arrested several pickpockets, and, of course, some of them turned a few tricks and made a getaway. But we were more successful in spotting the crooks before they got to work and ordering them out of town."

"Henceforth, during fair week we have found dozens and dozens of empty pockets which 'dips' have taken from citizens and thrown away after removing the contents. This year not a single purse has been found."

Danville Beats Clinton Springs.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Danville, Va., October 22.—The Danville School football team this afternoon defeated Clinton Springs Academy team in a fast and well-played game, which ended in a score of 11 to 4. In the first quarter Warren, the right tackle, succeeded in getting across the goal line, kicking the goal. In the third quarter Danville scored again, Leigh getting over the line, but failing to convert. Clinton Springs then scored. McMahon left tackle, crossing the line, but failing to kick a goal.

Healthy Old Age Is What Dr. Hartman Advocates

See here, young man, I heard you complaining of being nervous, sleepless, brain fagged, and the like. A young man, hardly in the zenith of your life, complaining of such things!

And this is very common, too. You are not the only one. Probably three out of four of the young men of to-day have just such symptoms as you describe. What does it mean?

Look at me. I am eighty-two years old. Sound as a nut. Tough as hickory. Do not know what it is to be tired. While I cannot do as much physical work as I used to when a young man, I can do a great deal. Probably twice as much as the average young man of to-day.

What has kept me so strong and well? I will tell you. I do not use tobacco. I do not use alcoholic stimulants. I do not use tea or coffee habitually. I do not use any of the things that occupy my body and mind. I love to work. I take a cold water towel bath every morning, winter and summer. It is these things that have kept me well and strong. You could be just as well and strong as I am if you would do as I do.

You may ask, do I never get sick, have

I never had occasion to take medicine at all? Yes, I have got sick. Sometimes I feel a little touch of climatic trouble, like cold, malaria, slight catarrhal symptoms, but my only medicine is Peruna. I always keep a bottle of Peruna in the house. I keep a bottle of Peruna on my desk in my office. Once in a while I take some. I do not take it habitually. Take it only when I feel a little out of sorts. One swallow will perhaps be all that will be necessary, but it is always handy by.

It is a sorry sight to see the young men of to-day begin to peter out physically when they ought to be in the glory of their manhood and the height of their vigor. Eat plain food. Live frugally. Give up all weakening habits. Live as God intended you to live. Take Peruna when you do not feel as well as usual.

If you want me to I will send you a book which will tell you a great many more things about yourself and about matters that may be of great value to you. Enclose a two-cent stamp for postage and the book will be sent in a plain wrapper and you will not be troubled with any follow-up letters or advertisements.

Peruna, Man-a-Lin and La-cu-pia manufactured by the Pe-ru-na Company, Columbus, Ohio. Sold at all drug stores.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Many persons inquire for The Old-time Peruna. They want the Peruna that their Fathers and Mothers used to take. The old Peruna is now called Katarno. If your dealer does not keep it for sale write the Katarno Company, Columbus, Ohio, and they will tell you all about it.—Advertisement.

A Honduran, were overtaken by Nicaraguan government troops at Somotillo as they approached the Honduran border. Forty were killed and many others, including the leader, were wounded. All gave up their arms, and the entire movement was speedily dispersed.

Minister Weiters, in reporting the affair to the State Department to-day, said the refugees, who were bent upon starting a revolution against President Bonilla's government in Honduras, had fled from Leon when that city was turned over to the American forces. The complete failure of the movement against Honduras is believed not only to relieve the menace of another revolution in that country, but to mark the end of disturbances in Nicaragua.

NEW REVOLUTION SPEEDILY ENDED

Rebel Troops Dispersed Before They Can Strike at Honduras.

Washington, October 22.—An uprising against the Honduran government, started by participants in the Nicaraguan revolt, came to a sudden and bloody end before the expedition got out of Nicaragua. The refugees, 200 in number, under Jose Rafael Osejo,

RINGLING BROS. TO DISBAND HERE

Big Circus to Give Last Performance of Year in Richmond on November 2.

After the fair, the circus. Hardly before the echoes of the Virginia State Fair have died away, Ringling Brothers' "Greatest Show on Earth" will descend upon Richmond with fifty clowns, hundreds of side shows, an army of 1,300 performers and a menagerie of more than 1,000 beasts of the jungle. This mammoth circus, which will make its first appearance in Richmond Saturday, November 2, will disband for the winter after its exhibition here.

The properties of the circus, which require for their transportation five special trains, will be shipped directly from Richmond to the winter quarters of the show in Wisconsin, while those of the performers and camp followers who do not follow the circus into hibernation will disperse to the four quarters of the globe.

The street parade, three miles in length from end to end, promises to offer one of the best free attractions seen here for many months. Nearly 1,300 people, 650 horses, forty elephants, several hundred floats, open cages, fairy art vans and band chariots appear in it. The feature of Ringling Brothers' show this year is a gigantic spectacle called "Joan of Arc," in which chorus of 100 dancing girls and 600 horses appear.

Southern Homeopathic Medical Association to Have Large Attendance.
The Southern Homeopathic Medical Association will meet in annual convention at the Jefferson Hotel Auditorium beginning Tuesday evening at 8:15 o'clock. It is expected that the convention will bring between sixty and seventy members to Richmond from all over the South, together with a number of prominent physicians from Northern and Eastern cities. The sessions extend through Wednesday and Thursday of this week. The principal feature of the opening session Tuesday night will be an address on "What is Homeopathy?" by Dr. Royal A. Copeland, of New York. Dr. Copeland will be preceded by Mayor Aldridge, who will extend a welcome on behalf of the city, and Dr. F. E. Reed, of Austin, Tex., president of the association, who will respond. A special committee will furnish meals for the convention, and the public is invited to be present.
